Photographic content may be acceptable only if not a major part of work. Copyright rules apply throughout, however, no photographic reproductions, including Giclée prints will be accepted.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS – PLEASE READ CAREFULLY

- Works can only be entered in one section for judging, all works must be for sale, be the works of the exhibitor and been painted in the last 18months and not exhibited in any previous DAS exhibition.
- COPYRIGHT Must be adhered to in all respects. No copies of images from magazines, books, papers, the internet or copies of Old Masters will be accepted. Rejection of works regarded as a breach of copyright will be at the discretion of DAS committee.
No changes: to titles, pricing or sections can be made once your entry form has been submitted.
- Delivery of artwork: Monday 15April from 1.00pm – 6.30pm to the Drummoyne Civic Hall, Corner Lyons Rd and Marlborough St, Drummoyne. Late artworks will not be accepted.
- Commercial carriers: Artists using commercial carriers for DELIVERIES or COLLECTION of works must ensure that these take place at the appointed times and that all charges are paid by the artist and that any packing, packaging materials or re-packing is fully the responsibility of the carrier. All return courier arrangements must be completed and fully paid PRIOR TO DELIVERY of paintings to exhibition.
- Hung works: The Judge will choose works to be hung. Please be aware that some works may not be hung due to space limitation. No refunds are available for works not hung and these works can be collected at any time excepting Opening Night.
- Reasons artwork may not be hung:
 - If work is oversize.
 - If the frame has big screws or nails, hook eyes, sharp metal edges, is dirty, mouldy, damaged or unsafe.
 - If the painting is wet or damp.
 - If not corded strongly for safe hanging. Use only braided cord, not household string.
 - All works must have masking tape covering D-rings, staples or sharp protrusions on the back.
- Framing: Quality of all framed paintings, drawings, prints and unframed canvasses must be of a high standard to meet the Society's commitment to viewers and buyers of artworks. No unframed, thin edged canvasses (except for Children's section 9).
- Advertising: The Society reserves the right to allow reproduction by the media of any entry during the exhibition.
- Framed prints: Artists may list a price and the details of other editions of the PRINT (entered) that may be available for purchase by visitors to the exhibition. If enquiries are made by potential buyers, the buyer will be referred to the artist, who will then be under obligation to complete the sale of the other edition of the PRINT. Delivery to the Hall or to the customer will be at the artist's time and expense. A commission of 10% will apply.
- Refunds: No refunds are available for any reasons.
- Entry fees cover administration, venue, handling, judging, cataloguing, publicity and all general exhibition costs.
- Resume: Artists are encouraged to include their CV (resume) with their Entry Form.
- No correspondence: The Art Society Committee decision on all matters is final.
- Insurance: Works are not insured by the Society while part of the exhibition. If you require insurance you must organise your own. The Society takes all possible care but accepts no liability for loss or damage while works are in the exhibition.
- Collection of artworks: Sunday 28 April between 4.15pm and 6.30pm. No collections permitted prior to 4.15pm on day of collection. A storage fee of $10.00 per artwork per day will apply on non-collection of artworks.
